From editor's desk

Dearly beloved in Christ,

Greetings in the precious name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

It is God's pure mercy that we could meet once again in this issue. God's good hand has been guiding and protecting us all the past years. He that called us is faithful. He will accomplish what He begins (Phi. 1:6; 1The.5:24).

We had a wonderful time in Apostles and Prophets Seminar. Around eight hundred Apostles and Prophets gathered from all over India and abroad. Apostle Jorge from Uruguay challenged us to influence the communities and the secular world. It is time for India to get into the secular world. In fact the Bible never separates the spiritual and secular world. The Prophets and Apostles of Bible days influenced and transformed the then world. God gave us fresh words for the apostles which will be available in DVD's soon. Keep in touch with us or visit our website for updates.

I strongly feel that our ministry is entering more into the Apostolic and many churches are coming under our covering to carry the precious truth God has given me over the years. God is really raising up a young generation of sons and daughters who will carry the mandate for future generations.

We are thrilled to receive many testimonies of our SOHS ladies first batch. Lives are transformed. God is using them with signs and wonders and opening new doors for them. Thank you for praying for us. God willing we will have our second batch of our ladies school in the month of November. You have ample time to get ready and send others to this rare school.

Another good news is we have our SOHS for men from August to October 2012. Rush for your seat immediately. Recommend and send as many as possible for these schools. # Inherit Your Blessings

PROPHETIC MESSAGE

Dr. Ezekiah Francis

Every believer has an inheritance of blessings. The key to inherit these blessings is perseverance. God has purposed in His heart that each and every child of His should enjoy each and every blessing that He has for them. Instead of wasting our energy on feverishly begging God to bless us, we must examine the Bible prayerfully. The Holy Spirit is eager to speak to you today. He will break away all the hindrances and lead you into the land of blessing.

The Book of Genesis has a beautiful illustration. After the Philistines had filled all Abraham's irrigation wells with earth and stopped the water, Isaac dug them up again and named them exactly as his father had done. Behold! Springs of water gushed forth from them. Even today there are endless fountains of blessings God has granted you. Satan has prevented you from enjoying them. You must 'treasure hunt' these blessings with boldness and courage.

Just as Satan deceives a person into believing that these blessings are not meant for him/her, our Almighty Jehovah God intervenes and beckons us saying, "I am God of Abraham, your forefather. Fear not! I will bless you and multiply you for my servant Abraham's sake. I will always be with you". What a consolation! Shrug off all doubt.

Persevere and sow the seed like Isaac and reap a hundred fold. We only have to sow the Word of God in our hearts and souls. God will then bless His word and multiply it bountifully. Those who see the blessing hand of God in your life will marvel, "Are you being blessed by the Lord?" (Gen.26: 12-29)

There are two aspects here. Firstly sowing seeds of blessing within you to reap a bumper harvest and the second is retrieving all ancestral blessings back to your possession.

The serpent destroyed all the blessings of the first Adam. The second Adam is now willing to make you inherit them again. In these last days, let us receive all our rightful blessings just as our forefathers, the Bible saints, apostles and the men of the early church did in the past. Ignore Satan's deception and understand that the Lord who blessed Isaac for Abraham's sake has blessed you for His only Son's sake. The world shall surely witness it. As a result, the world will be drawn toward the church and it will then recognize the mighty God of blessing.

Come along with eager expectations to dig up each well of blessing and inherit those blessings.

Author and King of blessing

As you leaf through the Bible the Lord is pictured as a benevolent king of blessing. We must have a greater understanding of the One who showers the blessings before seeking the blessings themselves.

In the beginning:

Adam's first glimpse of God was God the benevolent Giver of blessings. In Gen.1:27, God created man and woman in His own image and said "Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the earth and subdue it..... reign over it." Adam and Eve did not kneel or beg for the creator's blessings. God Himself blessed them as His divine nature truly desires. Our creator God planted within us the burning desire to be blessed.

According to God's merciful will He created desire and action within you. When we wonder why God has created such ambitions and desires within us, it reveals the simple but awesome truth that He wishes to bless us a thousand times more than the actual desire indwelling us.

God created man only on the sixth day. In the first five days He created the land and seas, birds and aquatic beings, animals and orchards and brought Adam into the enchanting Garden of Eden through which glittering rivers ran. Here he granted Eve as a companion for the lonely Adam. Father God's stupendous imagination created all those blessings for man. Even in his wildest dreams Adam would not have come up with such a list of blessings!

The Garden of Eden was the most beautiful place that any human being could have desired to live in. Flowers of different hues and fragrances, plushy and delicious fruits! A natural reserve with friendly animals. A made for each other couple Adam and Eve, a sweet, blending harmonious relationship with every creation! A flawless life of innocence and purity! Endless blessings bestowed voluntarily and whole heartedly by the benevolent Lord.

Alas! Envious Satan, seething with jealousy at the cords of love and friendship between God and man, conspired to separate them by his wiles. He succeeded in his perilous plan and broke the cord of harmony. Thus curses and afflictions came into life on earth.

The Ancestors

Yet God never ceased from showering His blessings. He blessed Enoch and He blessed Noah. Though He caused a deluge of rain to flood the whole earth, He selected a race after His own heart to escape and survive. The same way, in which His generous heart blessed Adam and Eve, He blessed Noah and his family. Gen.9:1 “So God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them. “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth.” Our loving Lord is eager to bless us! He is ever ready to open the outlets of blessings to drench us.

When man fell i-nto idolatry which automatically clogged the channels of blessing, God called Abraham. Even before Abraham sought God's grace, God chose to bless him and all the races of the earth through him. He told Isaac and Jacob “I shall bless you for the sake of my servant Abraham”. Through Jacob God blessed the twelve tribes of Israel.

The springs of blessing followed the Israelites even in their captivity in Egypt. Though Pharaoh and his subordinates strived to stop the channels of blessing, God purposed to multiply His people and bring them out of captivity through Moses and Aaron.

In another incident, The Moabite King Balak deputed prophet Balaam to curse the Israelites. But lo! When Balaam opened his mouth, eloquent blessings came out like a torrent instead. Num.23:20. God came to Balaam at night and said to him, “If the men come to call you rise and go with them; but only the word which I speak to you- that you shall do”

Yes! Your Lord transforms curses from evildoers into blessings for you. When God stands beside you determined to bless you, no evil force can prevent it.

Moses and Aaron

In Num. 6:22-27 God even teaches Moses and Aaron how to bless the Israelites. “This is the way you shall bless the children of Israel. Say to them: “The Lord bless you and keep you; The Lord make His face shine upon you; And be gracious to you; The Lord lift up His countenance upon you. And give you peace.” So they shall put My name on the children of Israel and I will bless them.

God selected Aaron's sons as priests primarily to bless His chosen people. That shows His unquenching thirst to bless.

The Lord, who rejoiced in blessing Adam and Eve directly, strove to indirectly bless their descendants through their parents, priests, prophets, and kings even after their first parents' disobedience and fall.

The Bible is God's tool to bless us. Even today God expects us to sweep out curses and seek the blessing which is our portion. Yes, our Father is indeed the generous king of blessing.

Worshippers in the Holy Bible

Bro. Mandel Jeyaraj

In the previous issue, we learnt some of the basic truths about who a worshipper is from the life of Noah. In this issue, I would like to teach some more truths from the life of Noah with the help of the Holy Ghost.

What is special about this man Noah? Is there something he could teach us?

When we read Gen. 6:8,9, we understand that worshippers are people who win the special favor of God. It is incredible to believe the very truth that in the whole earth only Noah found favor in the eyes of the Lord. No other person was righteous and blameless in his time. Even today God has not changed His nature. He is the same God seeking a blameless, righteous and holy generation because He is holy and righteous. Likewise, we find the will of our Father in Eph. 1:4 “just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before Him”. It is the basic quality and calling of a worshipper.

The surprising truth is we are already special people to have won the favor (salvation) of God. We've been saved by God from this perverted generation through His grace. What a marvelous Jesus we worship! Even today when we worship God with all our being, we actually win His favor. We've been made righteous through Jesus by our Father in heaven. We get the full attention of God through worship and a worshipping lifestyle. It is one thing to get closer to God because of His righteous and holy nature and it's another thing when God gets closer to you because of your righteous and holy life. Worshipping lifestyle is the will of the Holy Ghost for this generation. Spend a lot of time worshipping God. This lifestyle doesn't bloom overnight. The Holy Spirit is here with us to fulfill this calling in us. Lean on Him.

The Bible says, “Noah walked with God...”.

Noah is one of the few saints in the Bible who had a close walk with God. Walking with God or walking in the Spirit is a life style and not magic. You need to get soaked in His Being (His Presence). This is not for a season but it's an everlasting relationship. Many times we understand worship as an action or performance, but fail to understand that God intended it to be a lifestyle. And so, God revealed to Noah His plan of destroying the whole humanity, animals and birds from the face of the earth by bringing the flood of waters upon the earth. God reveals His heart only to those close to Him. Enjoy this holy relationship with your bridegroom Jesus.

Worshippers are people who receive fresh plans from God. These plans differ according to God's will in different seasons and times. Remember it was God who volunteered with His plans and not Noah. Today, the living God says, “I have plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a future and a hope” Jer. 29:11.

Worshippers receive great solutions from God for huge destructions. The plan of building an ark was an interesting way of escape from mass destruction. The ark was a plan from God to Noah. Noah obeyed the voice of God (Gen. 6:22). Obedience is better than sacrifice. Worship is nothing but greater obedience to God. The whole family of Noah was saved from the flood.

Beloved, I tell you if you are a worshipper, God not only protects you but your family also. God made His covenant with Noah, his family and the beasts. And the ark became a right shelter to run into. Oh, God! When worshippers rise up, they become a shelter for thousands to run into. God has intended this calling for His beloved church. How great it would be if all the churches became real worship places. God has truly kept the church in the last days for such a great ministry like this.

If Jesus is a real shelter to many, naturally His church is also the same for many. It goes without saying since He is the Head and the church is His body. We are one with Christ. You can be like the ark if you make yourself the abode of the triune God. The Bible calls us “the temple of the Holy Ghost”, and so we need not be afraid of anything that could destroy us because we are connected with Christ. The only thing we need to do is to keep worshipping God at all times. His presence becomes an ark for us.

Another important truth that the Holy Ghost wants to share with the body of Christ is the truth about the flood of waters that was poured out upon the earth. Real worshippers are the channel for the great outpouring of the Holy Ghost in the last days. Before the end of the first world (world before the flood) there was a heavy outpouring of waters from the fountains of the great deep and from the floodgates of heaven. God made two major promises for these last days we are living in. One is “I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh...” and the other one is “I will rebuild the tabernacle of David...”. I believe that worship is the best preparation for a great outpouring of His Spirit. God rises up as King of Kings with His full strength when a group of worshippers sing His praises. We see here that the waters made the ark float. Everybody thinks that the ark was significant and that it made the real difference.

Yes, I agree. There is no doubt about it. But think about an ark without waters to float in. The ark got its real significance only when the waters made it float. The ark was safe only because of the waters. Imagine if God sent fire instead of water. The ark would have burnt up within a few seconds. God proved wiser in suggesting this plan of bringing the waters. I believe God showed this as an end time sign of a heavy outpouring of His Spirit. Until then Noah had no idea of what an ark was or what a flood was!

There is another truth here. The Bible says, “The waters prevailed more and more... so that all the high mountains everywhere under the heavens were covered”. The earth did not experience such a great outpouring of waters until then. Worship has such tremendous power of bringing a great outpouring of His Spirit and not only that, the outpouring will be to that prevailing level that nothing great or huge will be able to equal or dominate it.

Every mountain has to become low when the Spirit of God rises with His full dominion and power. I believe such a great outpouring is possible only when the church becomes a mountain of worship and every believer realizes his or her calling to worship. Every demon, idol and evil spirit has to bow down to the sovereignty and Excellency of His Name Jesus. Already we have started witnessing this great revival of worship. Thank you, Lord Jesus.

Another thing that I learnt from this chapter (Gen 7) is that only true worshippers can prevail in any kind of destruction. See the 23rd verse of the same chapter “...He blotted out every living thing that was upon the face of the land, from man to creeping things... and only Noah was left...”. Worshippers have so much power that no flood can stop them from enjoying God's presence.

Father God is seeking real worshippers even now. Why don't we go to Him that He may be found by us? Why don't we obey the voice of the Holy Ghost today? Oh! Worshippers, if Noah was able to see such a great phenomenon in his life time, how much more should we who live in the days of the Holy Ghost! We have in our spirit such great fountains of living waters that if they all burst open the entire earth will not be able to contain them! The only thing we have to do is sing continual praises to our King and start living a worshipping lifestyle. That becomes the channel for the flood to flow from our spirit. Only His presence can release this flood and nothing else. Praise and worship is the only key to His presence.

Family Corner (Tip for the family)

One-on-one-time: Each week try to spend an hour with each child one on one doing what the child likes to do! It might sound very simple, but the key is to sincerely do it and make sure the child enjoys it. Don't do it as one more responsibility on your things to do list. Do it as time invested usefully in the life of your child!

Soul Ties and Family Relationships

Rev. Benita Francis

Soul ties also make family relationships very difficult and complicated. The undue attachment of soul ties makes people to be easily hurt and offended. It can lead to the formation of hostile groups inside a family. Quarrels and misunderstandings between brothers and sisters, as well as the world-famous problems between mother-in-law and son-in-law or daughter-in-law are just some of the examples. In many cases, the hidden reason for their fighting is their competing for the love and acceptance of parents or elder siblings or claims family members think to have over each other.

Very often, people who are bound by such soul ties suffer tremendously for years. They suspect anybody who talks to the person their soul is bound to. They fear anybody could break into their relationship or influence that person negatively towards them. This constant strain on their emotions can actually make them sick, causing high blood pressure, sleeping trouble, digestive problems, stress and mental exhaustion. Some victims of soul ties finally rebel against this constant torture and violently break the relationship once and for all. Why should you allow that? Better cleanse it by the powerful Blood of Jesus and make it a God-pleasing relationship where both partners are free to love and obey God first and then only men (Ac.5:29)!

Especially mothers are prone to develop soul ties with their children at the cost of their relationship with their husband. Let me give you a strict warning and advice here: The best asset you can give to your children in life is a happy marriage! Happy parents have happy, emotionally healthy children that will also be able to build happy, healthy homes when their time comes. Soul ties with the children and the resulting marriage problems will very much affect your children's emotional health and well-being.

Our Lord Jesus gives us a wonderful example on how to deal with soul ties. His mother Mary knew very well that He was engendered by the Holy Spirit, not by any human being. Her relationship with her son must have been very special since she knew from the words of the angel Gabriel as well as from different saints of God that her Son was the Savior of the world (Lk. 1:19; 2:25-38). She was chosen to bear Him in her womb and to bring Him up in a God-pleasing way. Very interestingly, there are different words in Greek for 'son'. One is 'hyius', a more general word that is often connected to religious situations. Normally, the Lord Jesus would be described as 'hyius', the Son of Man, Son of God, Son of David, My beloved Son, Thy Son, only begotten Son, David's Son, firstborn Son etc. The other one is 'teknon', which denotes a more intimate, affectionate and reciprocal relationship formed between men by the bonds of love, friendship and trust, just as between parents and children.

We can infer that Mary, although keenly fulfilling her role as a mother, would have kept that sense of awe before her God-begotten Son and used the word 'hyius'. And yet, there was one incident where her soul 'took over'. You can read the entire incident in Luke 2:41-52. When Jesus was twelve years of age, He lingered behind in Jerusalem, listening to the teachers of the law and asking them questions. Mary and Joseph were anxiously searching for Him. Let me add a little side note: If you become anxious about another person, this is a warning sign for soul ties! Better check your heart and purify that relationship by the mighty Blood of Jesus!

48 So when they saw Him, they were amazed; and His mother said to Him, "Son (TEKNON!), why have You done this to us? Look, Your father and I have sought You anxiously."

49 And He said to them, "Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father's business?" (Lk.2:48-49).

See our Lord Jesus' reaction! At only twelve years of age, He instantly countered his mother's soulish approach with the Word of God, reminding her of His heavenly calling and mission! He did not react in a harsh way, nor did He hurt her or show any disrespect. He just made His priorities clear!

You will have to do exactly the same thing many times. There is no need to hurt loving people. Just make sure you keep your heavenly calling and mission before your eyes and proclaim it whenever needed. Peter and the other apostles even had to make this declaration before the highest council of Jerusalem! They could boldly state, "We ought to obey God rather than men" (Ac.5:29)! That was the secret of their spiritual success and their miracle power!

Now let us return to the situation in Jerusalem:

50 But they did not understand the statement which He spoke to them.

51 Then He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them, but His mother kept all these things in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men (Lk.2:50-52).

See the reaction of Mary and Joseph! They just could not understand! That will also happen to you over and over again. Don't despair! This is just one of the tests of your faith and faithfulness God puts you through.

I had this experience in my own family. I remember one situation where I was doing ministry in Argentina when I got a phone call from home. My mother in Germany had to be admitted in hospital, and my father was on a business trip overseas. It was a big shock for me as their only child, and the burden of responsibility wanted to make me take the next flight back to Germany. When I prayed, however, the Lord impressed on me that I had to accomplish my ministry in South America and trust Him and His angels to take care of my mother. That was extremely difficult for me to do, but I just obeyed the Lord and tried to keep the anxiety from attacking my mind and soul. Praise God, the Lord was faithful (as He is always!), and my mother could be released from hospital very soon and without any further complications. Years later, my parents told me that they had heard a message about the life of Jesus and His relationships with His parents, disciples, well-wishers and enemies. They confessed that they couldn't sleep the whole night, discussing many events from our family life. They told me, 'Now only we understand many of your actions! You were really putting God's Kingdom first in your life, and even though it looked cruel to us at that moment, we now see the blessings that came even upon us as you tried to follow God's will for your life.' Praise the Lord!

You will never be put to shame if you keep Jesus your first love (Rev.2:4)! Keep your humble, loving attitude. Patiently await your God-given time. Keep your heavenly goal before your eyes, and you will not be shaken (Ps.16:8). As you refuse to allow people to develop soul ties with you, you will increase in wisdom and favor with God and men! You will run straight toward your calling without allowing any strings to entangle you!

IAS in the Indian context stands for the Indian Administrative Services. It is a very prestigious qualification to serve the Country of India in senior Government positions! As believers we are called to be IAS intercessors!!! These letters form a very appropriate acronym for Intercession!

I - Identification
A - Availability
S - Sacrifice

Nehemiah lived in Susa, a thousand miles away from Jerusalem. He served in the palace of the king. Amidst the affluence of the palace and the comforts of the high position, he suddenly started weeping (Neh.1:4a). This led to mourning and fasting and a wonderful prayer of Intercession (Neh.1:4b, 5-11). How did this change happen? The Bible says that when Nehemiah was in Susa, Hanani and a few other men came from Judah. Nehemiah picked up a conversation with them and asked about Jerusalem. They reported that the walls of Jerusalem were broken and the gates were burned with fire.

IDENTIFICATION

When Nehemiah heard this, he mourned and wept before God. In Neh.1:6, 7 Nehemiah included himself in his repentance prayer. He said, "I confess the sins we Israelites, including myself and my father's family have committed against you. We have acted very wickedly toward you. We have not obeyed the commands, decrees and laws you gave your servant Moses".

He included himself while praying for the Israelites' wickedness! This is identification repentance! Judah's problem now became Nehemiah's problem. An intercessor needs to identify with the situation. When that happens, you will find the Holy Spirit enabling you to pour out your heart in prayer for that situation.

How often Kingdom needs have passed our ears and minds like yet another news item. In these last days, may God help us to identify with and intercede for broken walls and burned gates.

AVAILABILITY

There were hundreds of people in Jerusalem after Jesus rose from the dead. There were one hundred and twenty in the upper room who spoke in tongues. Eleven disciples empowered and commissioned by the Lord Himself were in Jerusalem. But the Lord chose a man in Damascus for the task of interceding for Saul! I have often wondered why!

There must have been very few who were willing to minister to a man who had a reputation of terrorizing Christians. In fact even after his conversion, the disciples were reluctant to associate with Paul.

But Ananias was available for the mission even though he very well knew Paul's track record! (Acts 9:13, 14). The best part is that God Himself knew that Ananias was available and would obey Him.

When an intercessor is available to the Lord, God will use him/her to do something supernatural. When Ananias prayed for Saul, he received his sight and the baptism of the Holy Spirit. Ananias also had the privilege to be the first person to prophecy over Paul! What an honor!

SACRIFICE

Every intercessor has to make sacrifices. Intercession requires time, effort and discipline. Sometimes, this has to be done at the cost of your food, sleep and comfort. The disciples gathered and prayed a whole night in John Mark's house for the release of Peter from prison (Acts 12:12). Daniel, the highest official in the kingdom took time to fast and pray with sack cloth and mourning (Dan.9:3). Moses, Aaron and Hur prayed with lifted arms, not minding the pain of prolonged lifting up of hands for the sake of victory over the Amalekites. Intercession involves sacrifice.

When God gives you opportunities to pray and intercede, identify with the need, be available and sacrifice time, leisure and food to obey Him. May God lead you and bless you as you become IAS Intercessors!

Testimony

I am Jishya completed my B.Tech. I started listening Ezekiah uncle's messages when I was 13. Since then I started attending all his meetings. I use to attend all the night prayers.

I had a very bad health condition. I was under medication. Doctors told its hard for me to study. As I prioritized Him, prayed for Nations whole night with uncle, He honored me and helped me to get the school first in my Tenth standard.

we attend all the meetings of Ezekiah uncle. Since 2006, we regularly attend Prayer seminar as a family.

During 2008 - 2010 I was doing my Engineering. We have our exams during November. I made a point to attend all the Prayer seminar. There are times where I finish my exam, come directly to Poondi from my Exam hall.

I spent all my study holidays at Poondi, attending Prayer seminars. God helped me to clear all my paper with a good percentage. He raised my head, in front of my friends who mocked at me.

Most notable miracle was during 2010, I had my 7th semester which is the most important semester. Our prayer seminar got over on 10th of November and I had my exams on 12th November. I had only one day to study. I gave my burden to God.

Our God always works beyond our imagination. 11th from noon it started to rain heavily. My University declared that exams has been postponed to december. This has never happened in the history of our University.

God brought rain that one day and changed the exam dates just for me because I shared His burden in Prayer seminar. Thereby He brought a difference among people who worship Him and people who worship idols.

He restored me everything that I lost. I am happy to tell that, I am a product of Berachah. It was Ezekiah uncle's sermon that encouraged me, supported me and his challenging life motivates me. This ignites the fire that is in me, when I am down in my spirit.

I would like to encourage the readers to be a part of Berachah, listen to uncle's sermon, which opens our eyes.

I can assure you that you will see a change in you just by reading his books and listening to his sermon.

I made a difference in my college and university just because I came to Prayer seminar. I feel the change I am going through. I thank God for Ezekiah uncle and his new revelations that opens our eyes.

CLEAN BLOOD

After a hard day's work you return home and turn on the TV. You hear a little blurb about a village in India where some villagers have suddenly died strangely of a flu that was never known before. They are sending some doctors to investigate. You don't think much about it but on Friday when you return from Church, you see another spot. This time they say that it is not just three or four villagers but 30,000 villagers in the back hills of this particular spot in India. CNN runs a little blurb on it. People are heading there from the disease centre in Atlanta because this disease is the lead story.

But now, it is not just India. It is Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Afghanistan, Iran and before you know it, you're hearing this story everywhere and they have coined it the 'mystery flu'. National leaders of various countries comment that they are hoping all will go well over there. But the thought foremost on everyone's mind is: "How are we going to contain it?!"

That's when the President of France makes an announcement that shocks Europe. He is closing their borders. No flights from India, Pakistan or any country where this thing has been found. That night as you watch CNN, your jaw hits your chest when a weeping French woman is translated as saying that a man is dying of this mystery flu in a hospital in Paris. It has come to Europe. Panic strikes. At best doctors can tell that once you get it, you have it for a week and you don't know it till it is too late. Then you have unbelievable symptoms and you die!

Britain closes its borders but it is too late. Liverpool, South Hampton and it is Tuesday morning when the President of United States makes the following announcement:

"Due to national security risk, all flights to and from Europe and Asia have been cancelled. If your loved ones are overseas, I am sorry. They cannot come back without a cure for this thing."

Within four days US is plunged into unbelievable fear. People are selling masks for the face. Everyone across the world is talking about it now. People are worried about what if it comes to this country?! Preachers are saying, "This is the scourge of God".

It is Monday night and you are at a Church gathering... Someone says, "Turn on the radio" and while the church listens to a small radio, an announcement is made. "Two women have died of this mystery flu in a Long Island hospital". Within hours this thing seems to just sweep across the United States. People are working round the clock to find an antidote. Nothing seems to work... California, Oregon, Arizona, Florida.

Then all of a sudden the news comes out. The code has been broken. A cure can be found. A vaccine can be made. It is going to take the blood of someone who hasn't been infested and so everyone is asked to do one simple thing.

Go to the nearest hospital and have your blood type taken. That's all we ask of you. When you hear the siren's go off in your neighbourhood, please make your way quickly and quietly to the hospital".

So you take your family to the nearest hospital and having given blood, you are standing in the hospital ground. Everyone is scared. wondering if this is the end of the world.

Suddenly an attendant comes running out of the hospital screaming. They have the perfect donor. He waves a clipboard and yells a name... It has your son's name on it! What?! He yells again... Your son's blood could be the perfect antidote for this flu. Your son tugs at your little finger. You would never ever let anything happen to HIM! No, it just can't be! Not your son's blood! The old doctor comes to you and says, "I'm sorry, we have to get started. There are people dying all over the world...!"

Can you leave? Can you walk away while he is saying, "Mom? Dad? Dad? why...why have you forsaken me..?"

Your only son is taken away from you to die!

The next week they have a ceremony to honour your son. Some folks sleep through it. Some folks don't even come because they go to the lake. Some folks come with a pretentious smile and new clothes to show off...some come with booze and cigarettes...as if they care!

Wouldn't you want to jump up and shout, "MY SON DIED DON'T YOU CARE?!"

Isn't that what God is saying, "My Son died. Don't you know how much I care?!"

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life.
John 3:16

OF GETHSEMANE

-Dulcie David

I left heaven's splendor with a love so true
To bridge the aching gap between God and you
Though I knew the torture that lay ahead of me
As I walked in there with my favorite Three.
'Watch and Pray', I said to them thrice,
'cause pain, agony and torture was the precious price;
I needed strength the weary burden to bear
But they slept; I wondered if they really did care.

Sobs racked my body that night on my knees.
Your sin weighed me down and the pain did not cease;
I sweated blood in agonizing tears;
Then I turned towards heaven to my Father dear.
'Daddy, please take this cup away from me.
Nevertheless, not my will but as pleases Thee'.
From my sorrowing heart these words were torn
As I knelt in the Garden, forsaken and forlorn.

Judas betrayed me with an empty kiss.
There was a lump in my throat when he did this;
A little later as I stood in Pilate's Hall
Peter denied thrice that he knew me at all.
That agonizing night I shed bitter lonely tears
As I remembered my devotion for thirty three years.

The mob demanded my life, 'Oh! What hate!'
They yelled, "Just crucify him. Don't spare him mate!"

At a place called Golgotha, they nailed me to the cross.
God looked down from heaven and could not bear to see the loss.
Darkness filled the earth as God in silence turned.
He let me die there for you in love and concern.
I was buried and was raised on the third glorious day.
It was in accordance with the Scriptures, God had planned it that way;
But I do still remember that gruesome night
When I hung there for you and your sin I did fight.

Now seated in heaven's glory, as my Father and I Look down on you, your indifference makes me cry;
Don't waste my precious blood, I was killed, can't you see?
By rejecting my love, please don't crucify me.

Apostles and Prophets School 2012 - Report

Bro. Sebastian Lonth

I consider it the plan of God and a blessing to have been the coordinator along with the great man of God Pastor Joseph Balachandran for the Apostles and Prophets School held in Feb 2012. This School was the first of its kind and all the delegates came with great expectation. We had four counters doing the registration and there seemed to be a never ending stream of delegates. In spite of all the hindrances on the journey to the Campsite, we had nearly 800 delegates from South Africa, Nigeria, Kuwait, UAE, Nepal, Germany, Austria, Belgium, Malaysia, Sri Lanka, South America, New Zealand and most of the Indian states!

Speakers included Apostle Jorge Marquez from Uruguay, Sis. Alice from Belgium, Dr. Christoph Kronschnabl and Beate Kronschnabl from Germany, our beloved Berachah counselors Pastor Joseph Balachandran, Pastor Paulos and our faithful team from Berachah Pastor Nehemiah and Pastor Thomas and of course our beloved Prophet Ezekiah and Sister Benita Francis.

Worship was led by the sisters who had successfully completed the School of the Holy Spirit Ladies Batch as well as Pastor Nehemiah, Pastor Jeyaseelan, Bro. Jeyaraj and others from the Berachah Prophetic Ministries! The ministry of Apostle Marquez was thought provoking. Sis. Alice who is leading a church for Commercial sex workers and drug addicts in Germany was a great challenge to many to think out of the box and be open for God to lead them in any way He desired.

Dr. Christoph's sessions gave us good insight on how to preserve our health to be powerfully used by God. Pastor Paulos exhorted the delegates on the element of sacrifice in the Apostolic and Prophetic Ministry. Pastor Joseph Balachandran spoke on the practical aspects of relationships and character within the family.

On 23rd, we celebrated the birthdays of our beloved Prophet Ezekiah and Sister Benita whose birthdays fall on 25th and 23rd February. We also had the Graduation ceremony of the dear sisters who had just finished a one month course in the school of the Holy Spirit. They put up a grand program on their graduation day and their exuberance reflected their experiences in their stay at Poondi.

At the end of the School, we left the place knowing that He who began a good work in us is faithful to complete it. My prayer is that each and every Apostle and Prophet who attended this school would obey God in the way He chose to lead them in the ministry. All glory and honor to Jesus alone!
