From My Heart

Dearly Beloved,

Greetings in the name of our resurrected Lord Jesus Christ!

We had a powerful January. The three days fasting and prayer in South India was glorious with many mighty manifestations of the Holy Spirit. We had around 3800 people, almost 80 percent were young people from different districts of Tamil Nadu and even from other South Indian states. People were soaked in the presence of God and the truth 'Christ in you, the hope of glory' opened their eyes for different dimension in their spiritual life. Thank you so much for your valuable prayers.

Our God has given a tremendous weapon for you, that is your tongue. Beloved, confess all the promises of God for your health and long life. Don't curse yourself with negative words! Keep the joy of the Lord which generates strength and works like a medicine (Neh.8:10; Pr.15:15; 17:22). The life of God in you will constantly supply the needed energy and strength. Avail it today! Resist the devil who comes to steal, kill and destroy your God-given life. Use your tongue to build God's Kingdom and to destroy the devil's kingdom.

Our 40 days School of the Holy Spirit for Men and Couple inaugurated gloriously on 20th of January. We have students from 21 states of India. Ninety percent are full time ministers. They have kept aside their ministries and responsibilities and have come here for 40 days to be renewed and refreshed by the Holy Spirit. We need your prayers for them and they must go back with new vision and mission of God.

Last year we had a very powerful Apostles and Prophets conference. Still today, we hear mighty testimonies from it. This year we will again have our Apostles and Prophets conference from 23rd to 27th of February. This conference is for you if you are already an apostle or prophet or if you have this calling. It will take your ministry and anointing into another level of glory.

*"Silver and gold
I do not have,
but what I do have
I give you:
In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk."*

PROPHET

THE DEVOTION LEADER

Prophet Ezekiah Francis

It is the duty of a prophet to lead the Church in prayer and worship. He generates a great desire for God and His sweet presence, in the hearts of the people. The prophetic anointing imparts the burden to intercede for others.

All the Bible prophets were prayer warriors. They led others in prayer. This truth is expressed in the very first occurrence of the word 'prophet'. Listen to God's testimony about Abraham. "Now return the man's wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live", said God (Gen.20:7,17,18). Jehovah God Himself confirmed that the most important function of a prophet is to intercede for others, so that they may be relieved of their problems. When the word 'prophet' first occurred, it was in combination with prayer. A prophet is an intercessor; he is a man of prayer.

When this incident took place, Abraham was not a role model of faith. To save his skin, he did not hesitate to compromise the chastity of his own wife. But 'the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable'. The Lord came to her rescue. Not only that, the gracious Lord did not take away His calling to intercede for others, in spite of Abraham's abject failure. Instead God gave Abraham the responsibility of pleading for the royal family.

Whatever may be your condition, if you are a prophet, it is your bound duty to intercede for others. A prophet who fails to intercede commits sin. Look at Abraham. At that time, he did not have a son of his own! Yet he prayed for Abimelech and his entire household, that God might heal the women and make their wombs fruitful. Yes, this is the calling of a prophet. This is the honour that the Lord God grants them. Abraham submitted to God's will and prayed for Abimelech. God answered him, healed the women and they bore children (Gen. 20:17-18). See God's honour for His true intercessors.

Believe me, without prayer and intercession, no ministry can be sustained for long. All the apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers are required to give themselves continually to prayer. Especially for prophets, spending time in prayer is itself a part of their calling. To intercede and pray for others on the one hand and to bring God's message for them, on the other, are like two eyes to him. All the Bible prophets were mighty intercessors.

Look at the prophet Moses. He had an intimate walk with God, so much so that God certified, "I speak with him face to face, even plainly". He was entrusted with the responsibility of leading several thousands of people. But he considered spending time in God's presence and being faithful in all His house as more important! It will not be gainsaid if we say that he spent more time with God than with man. He waited upon the Lord for several days, received His words and stood before the people with the glory of God shining in his face (Ex.19:3,20; 34:2,3, 28-30; 24:12-18). But that was not all. Who can forget his tearful pleading and travailing of his soul? Oh! He was even willing to have his name erased from the book of life (Ex.32:6-14 & 30-32; Num.12:13; 14:11-21). Yes, God's prophets should constantly dwell in His presence!

Samuel literally sold himself to pray!! To him, not to pray for others was sin (I Sam. 12:23). From his early childhood he grew up in the presence of God. Samuel means 'answer to prayer' (1 Sam.1:20; 3:1; 2:11; 18:21). Prophets are the flowers that blossom in the garden of God's presence.

As for Elijah and Elisha, their very address was God's presence. "As the Lord God of Israel, before whom I stand", was how they prided themselves (I Kings 17:1; 18:15; II Kings 3:14). They brought about great revival by their prayers. And what more shall I say? The time is insufficient to tell of Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Amos, Agabus, and the others.

We do have such great prayer warriors in our midst even today. I am always an admirer of prayer warriors.

Prayer - set aflame

Along with interceding for others, the prophet should give the clarion call to the Church and the ministers to dedicate themselves to a life of prayer. This is another vital role of the prophets. They should teach the believers to pray in accordance with Biblical verses. They should convene prayer fellowships wherever and whenever possible. Like Joel, they should say, "Blow the trumpet in Zion, declare a holy fast, call a sacred assembly. Gather the people, consecrate the assembly; bring together the elders, gather the children, those nursing at the breast... Let the priests, who minister before the LORD, weep between the temple porch and the altar..." (Joel 2:15-17). Samuel gathered the people at Mizpah. They fasted and Samuel poured out his heart to the Lord (I Sam.7:5,6). The prophet John the Baptist and the greatest prophet Jesus Christ taught their disciples to pray. To know more about this subject read my books on prayer (Prayer the Vital Breath of Life, Excellence of Intercession). Is the Spirit of prayer on the wane in your congregation? Then pray that God may send mighty prophets.

Ministry of worship

The most noble and lofty ministry one can offer to God is praise and worship. He is worthy to be praised and worshipped for ever. He is worshipped in the heavens incessantly. The Lord God set apart His Church to worship Him. When the Church worships God, His Divine presence descends on the earth. The evil spirits of darkness flee, unable to stand before the power of worship. Worship is the major task of the Church.

To worship God and to teach the Church to worship are two major tasks of the prophet. He leads the people towards God's glory in worship. The Church that worships shall excel in supernatural power. The Church that glorifies God by worship shall bring His glory down to this earth.

Praise and the prophet are inseparable. Praise is an integral part of a prophet. All the Bible prophets were great worshippers of the one true God. These worshippers called the people to true worship. The Spirit of praise & worship kindles the prophetic anointing to its dazzling brilliance or dizzy heights. The more we worship God, the more shall be the prophetic anointing. In any church where praise and worship abounds, visions and prophecies shall also abound. A man who is always preoccupied with worshipping God will be able to discern His voice very easily. It is only when I worship that my spiritual eyes are opened and visions are granted.

Moses

Moses was a great worshipper. When he led the Israelites out of Egypt, he let out the victory cry, "Let my people go, that they may serve (worship) Me". With songs of praise they crossed the Red Sea. His sister Miriam also sang the song of victory with Moses and with shouts of joy they led them towards the promised land. Moses received the revelations concerning the 'Law of the Altar' He set apart the tribe of Levi, to minister to God as priests. He prescribed the entire law, regulations and liturgical procedures relating to the worship of God, sacrifices etc. In brief, it may be said that his entire ministry can be summarised into a ministry of worship (Ex.3:12; 5:1; 8:1,20; 15:1-12; 17:15,16; 20:1-6, 24; 28:1; Chapters 25,26,27).

It is the prophets who teach the Church 'how to excel in worship', even today. "To worship the Lord with gladness" is their motto. And they impart this great anointing everywhere by their lifestyle.

David

King David, a great worshipper is also a prophet of a rare kind. He brought the Ark of the covenant, where God's mighty presence rested, to Zion. He transformed this city into one of worship. He maintained regular worship and appointed priests, levites and singers to minister unto the Lord. King David received the revelation that the Spirit of Worship pervaded his kingdom (I Chr.25:1-4; Chapters 15&16). The prophetic waves increase by leaps and bound through worship. His psalms of worship became songs of prophecy that lead the Church into praise and worship even today! Thank God! He is raising prophets like David around the globe. They sing their prophecies in songs and hymns. They lead the traditional and main line churches into free worship. They proclaim that God is not only to be feared but to be celebrated with gladness. "Serve the Lord with fear and rejoice with trembling" (Ps. 2:11). When there are a multitude of prophets, the entire Church shall be clothed with the garment of worship. The God 'who inhabits the praises of Israel', shall make His presence felt on this earth (Ps. 22:3). That is the key, par excellence, to revival.

Abraham was also a prophet. Wherever he went, he 'built altars and called on the name of the Lord'.

Miriam, the prophetess, took the timbrel in her hand and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances, shouting, "Sing to the Lord for He has triumphed gloriously..." (Ex.15:20,21). She led those women into praising God. Today God is raising prophetesses with the anointing to release the tradition bound and suppressed women and to give them the garment of praise instead of the spirit of heaviness. In these last days, we will witness more women breaking forth with singing and dancing and rejoicing as they swim in the prophetic wave.

Daring Deborah was also a prophetess. She taught the struggling Israelites to wriggle out of the oppression and giggle with joy. In her hand demonic designs became, mnemonic tools to praise God (Judges 5). Many a Deborah is being raised by God today to sing the praises of God with such unction and anointing. The days are coming when the hunted are going to be the hunters. Those who were wringing their hands out of despair, shall be ringing the bells of gladness, singing Hallelujah! This is possible only by the prophets who praise and worship the Lord.

Wherever the prophets go, the praises reverberate. As the adage goes, 'reputation precedes a man.' So the sound of praises precedes the prophets. Before the group of prophets, there will always be musicians with stringed instrument, a tambourine, a flute and a harp. When they play those instruments and praise God, prophecies shall break out like a mighty river (I Sam. 10:5-6).

Elisha

Elisha, a mighty prophet, who performed great exploits for God looked for a musician before he prophesied. When the musician played, the prophetic anointing came upon him (2 King.3:15,16). It is the duty of the prophets to teach how to operate in this gift, even today.

Anna

Who has not heard about Anna, the prophetess? Though she was eighty-four years old, her zeal for worshipping the Jehovah God never diminished. She did not depart from the temple, but worshipped God with fasting and prayers night and day. It would not be an exaggeration to say that it was her worship that hastened the presence of Christ to this earth. Worship is not merely a pious habit but the primary mission. God is looking for such 'Annas' who shall make worship as their preoccupation.

In the Antioch Church the prophets kindled the fire of worship. This fire caught up with the other ministers also. It became their practice to fast together and worship. During such worship, the voice of prophecy came out loud and clear. The worship of the attendant prophecy thus paved the way for the missionary journeys (Act 13:1,2).

We can go on and on in such a vein. The prophetic anointing is filling the Church as never before. 'God is comforting those who mourn in Zion and is giving them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy and gladness for mourning. He is clothing those with the spirit of heaviness with the garment of praise that they may be called trees of righteousness'. The time has come for the Lord to adorn His bride. God is sending His specially anointed prophets to His Church for this purpose. We hear the prophets' voice saying, 'Worship only the Lord God' everywhere. During the first coming of Christ, there was an outflow of worship and prophecy. Mary, Elizabeth. Zachariah, the shepherds, the angels, Anna and Simeon praised and worshipped God and prophesied. In the same way, during the second coming of Christ also, there will be an abundance in praise and worship and the prophecies. The prophets are going to prepare the Church for this. Now, where are those prophets who are to lead the Church into an anointing of worship?

I can specifically say this for the glory of God. Right from my younger days, among all the great works God had deigned to do through me and through the Berachah Prophetic Ministries, I consider the following very important. Right from the beginning God gave me the Spirit of prayer and the Spirit of worship to bring about the revelations that He has given to the Church through me. The Lord has revealed a lot about prayer. We regularly organize Fasting Prayers all over the country where thousands gather to fast and intercede for the nation. By the grace of God we also conduct a School of Prayer for 21 days delving deep solely on the aspect of prayer. The books that I have written about prayer have challenged many to a life of prayer and a ministry of intercession! We continue to receive such testimonies even today.

The revelations God gave through me, likewise, about worship have led several thousands into an anointing of worship. God had enabled us to conduct worship seminars also in several places. During the several meetings conducted by our Berachah Prophetic Ministries, the Spirit of worship flowed and anointed hundreds of people. Many people who had no music sense received this anointing and composed hundreds of songs. We receive many such testimonies and give all the glory to God. Many participants who come to the meeting with anxieties and worries, get relieved and praise the Lord God with joy and dancing. The secret of my prophetic messages has been the Spirit of praise and worship. My book, 'How to Excel in Worship', will teach you more on this truth.

In our country, we are soon going to have hundreds of such prophetic ministries. Do you desire for God's presence to come and fill your church? Do you want prophetic revelations to bubble and gush out of you? Do you want the Spirit of Prayer and Spirit of Worship to fill your church? Then seek the prophetic anointing! Acknowledge the prophets raised by God! Then your church will become an epitome of heaven itself. May God raise such prophets to promote the Spirit of Praise and Worship.

In Christ, the food for your spirit man is God's Word. Only meditating on it constantly will renew your mind and produce faith to live in Christ. As you walk in the truth of God's Word, you manifest more and more of Christ in you. This is the secret of living in victory, health, holiness, power and authority

- Prophet Ezekiah Francis

God's Medicine Healing Scriptures & Confessions

- ✧ Thank You, Lord, You are the Lord who sanctifies me. You purified my heart by faith. You separated me from my mother's womb and called me through Your grace to reveal Your Son in me because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, Lord, You have enabled me, because You counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry. I desire the position of an overseer. I desire a good work. I labor, striving according to Your working which works in me mightily because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, Lord, all Scripture is given by Your inspiration, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that I, the servant of God, may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, I know I am Your temple, and Your Spirit dwells in me. Whatever I do in word or deed, I do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to You through Him. Whether I eat or drink, or whatever I do, I do all to Your glory because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, You forgive all my iniquities. You heal all my diseases. You Yourself bore my sins in Your own Body on the tree, that I, having died to sins, might live for righteousness. By Your stripes I was healed because I am in Christ.

APOSTOLIC PRAYER

Benita Francis

Apostolic people also have a special way of praying. Yes, apostles do attend “the hour of prayer” at the temple, or at least they attempt to do so. Since apostles are living, walking prayers, however, they might just be interrupted by God Himself. They might just miss the prayer meeting because they have some heavenly business to attend to on the way:

1 Now Peter and John went up together to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms from those who entered the temple;

3 who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked for alms.

4 And fixing his eyes on him, with John, Peter said, “Look at us.”

5 So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them.

6 Then Peter said, “Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.”

7 And he took him by the right hand and lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

8 So he, leaping up, stood and walked and entered the temple with them - walking, leaping, and praising God.

*9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God.
(Ac.3:1-9)*

How could Peter be so sensitive to know that today was the day of salvation for this man? He would have been begging in the same place for years; probably even our Master Apostle Jesus would have seen him but not healed him. Why? Probably because God wanted to keep that joy, that excitement, that advertisement for His fledgling apostles!

How could Peter and John know what God wanted to do through them? Well, Peter had learned to watch and pray with the Savior. The Apostle Paul, who thanks his God that he speaks in tongues “more than they all”, exhorts the Thessalonians to “pray without ceasing” (1.Co.14:18; 1.Thes.5:17),

The miracle was done. Persecution arose. What is the response of apostolic people? Of course: prayer! And see what kind of prayer! There was nothing of self-pity, nothing of “please protect me”. They prayed a truly apostolic prayer:

29 “Now, Lord, look on their threats, and grant to Your servants that with all boldness they may speak Your Word,

30 by stretching out Your hand to heal,
and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of Your holy Servant Jesus”

31 And when they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the Word of God with boldness
(Ac.4:29-31)

So... did the apostles plan to bow to persecution? No way. They asked for miracles, they got them sanctioned, and they went out to DO them! That’s true apostolic prayer.

TESTIMONIES

THE TRANSFORMED LIVES

- ▶▶ I would like to share a testimony. Last year, during my battle with depression, I frequently listened to Prophet Ezekiah Francis' prophetic messages. The Lord truly used those teachings to lead me out of that dark season. We give all the praise to God for Prophet Ezekiah Francis and his team - ATP, Goa
- ▶▶ Though being a pastor's son, I was once lost in a sinful lifestyle. That changed in 2017 when my brother and I attended School of the Holy Spirit in Theni. I was delivered from a tormenting spirit and received the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Berachah has been a source of innumerable blessings in my life, just as it has been for millions of others. Today, I am ministering with my father, and we are seeing God work mightily through signs and wonders in our church. My deepest thanks and greetings to Prophet Ezekiah Francis, Anni, Berchmans Father, and the entire Berachah team! – J, TN
- ▶▶ I used to attend only because my father compelled me to. However, after coming here and receiving the revelation of 'Christ in you, the hope of glory' from Prophet Ezekiah Francis, my life changed completely. My relationship with Jesus grew so much that people around me could see His character through me. That single revelation transformed my life. Now, God is using me to minister to others, and I thank the Lord for that. There is no greater experience in the Christian Life. I desire to stay connected with Berachah Ministries and look forward to attending School of the Holy Spirit for Ladies. I thank God for this opportunity! – T, TN
- ▶▶ I came to 'Three days fasting prayer at Theni' carrying many burdens and family issues. During one of the sessions, I was filled with a fire anointing and saw fire in front of me. On the second day, while confessing sins and family curses in session, I felt a hand touch my forehead and was instantly filled with joy. All my burdens have vanished. I am free and full of praise! Glory to God! – K, TN

BERACHAH TRAINING CENTER

Center Of Healing For All Nations- Accommodation Facility

We at Berachah Prophetic Ministries are forever indebted to God for His faithfulness in fulfilling the vision which He entrusted to us. The prophetic voice of God has spread all across the nations transforming lives over the past few decades.

NEED OF ACCOMMODATION FACILITY

Indeed, through the past decades God has been so faithful to lead thousands of miracle workers to be trained, equipped and recharged to go forth to the mission field. God is drawing his love labourers in great masses to meet the need of the hungry multitudes in the world. However, one of the overwhelming challenges is to provide accommodation to the thousands that gather in any given event. This has been a pressing need of the ministry over the years.

1. The maximum capacity of the current room and AC dorm accommodation units is around four hundred delegates for a given event.
2. The minimal gathering for seminars and conferences is around 2,500 delegates. To accommodate this mass gathering we are currently converting the mini auditorium and dining hall as temporary accommodation units to facilitate the need of the hour.
3. Availing the main auditorium for accommodation purpose constrains the people to rest at night and refresh during afternoon breaks.
4. Dust free and clean environment is highly essential to maintain the fully airconditioned auditorium. Free flow of air circulation promotes healthy stay of the gathering. This prevents the spread of any sickness or virus among the crowd.

Phase 1 - DORMITORY ACCOMMODATION

Phase 1 dormitory accommodation for the trainees with attached washrooms and toilets, cots and mattress, in an area of 36,000 sq. ft, accommodating 1000 delegates, was successfully completed in the month of Feb 2025 at our Poondi campsite with grace and wisdom of God. Total amount for this accommodation is 7.2 Crores, wherein we are still in need of 4 Crores to complete.

We appreciate your continuous support through prayers and selfless offerings for this project. If God inspires you, pray and support for the Phase 1 - Dormitory Accommodation building project.

Phase 2 - ROOMS ACCOMMODATION

Phase 2 will start from March 2025, and we proposed to build 150 rooms with different types of rooms in an area of 40,000 Sq. ft. Total budget cost is 10 crores. Per sq. ft costing Rs. 2500/-.

The budgeted cost per room accommodation facility is Rs. 6 Lakhs. You can support this mega project individually or collectively as a church, family, prayer group or together with your friends. You can also give in installments or any amount you want to sow towards this mega accommodation project.
