From My Heart

My dear precious partners in Christ,
Greetings!

It's a great joy to meet you every month through this magazine. Thank you for standing with us faithfully all these years praying and partnering. God who keeps the accurate record of even a cup of cold water will increase your account and richly supply all your needs.

Berachah Prophetic Ministry will complete 38 years of ministry this year. When I look back, with eyes full of tears, I thank God for His unfailing grace and everlasting faithfulness. Supernatural miracles, transformation of millions of lives, raising up of ministers and ministries and restoring the remnants are some of our achievements. It is undeniable that God has been using this ministry to bring forth many profound truths to the Body of Christ in India. I give all glory to God alone.

Beloved, we are in the last minute of the last days. At present, both our nation and the Body of Christ are going through the most difficult of times. We are also facing many attacks all around us. It is time we understand our responsibility and rise up like Esther. There is no substitute for our prayers during a time such as this. As an individual and as a church join hands in fasting and prayer and shake heaven and earth.

After being in the training ministry for more than 45 years, my heart is now moving towards the leaders and the five-fold ministers like never before. We are continuously praying and planning towards conducting seminars for the leaders and five-fold ministers. We need your prayers, especially for this God given mandate.

Never forget to pray for the 'Short Term Intensive Course' that starts from August 12th to 21st. God has raised mighty servants of God through this event over the years. Heaven knows how many churches are built and how many miracle workers are raised through this ten-days course. Your prayers will release many mighty servants of God. What a privilege for you and me to be a part of God given vision. Pray for the right candidates to come and participate and for the greater manifestation of the Holy Spirit.

The next six months of this year is going to be extremely busy for us. We will Perilous times are coming in these last days and the Church must be ready to face persecutions (2.Tim.3:1). False religions will rise up like Goliath to challenge the Church of God. It is not the time to limp or to sit in your comfort zone. It is the time to arm yourself with the mind to suffer like Christ and to boldly declare the Gospel to every creature (1.Pe.4:1). Every believer is commissioned by God to preach the Gospel. Please lift up your eyes and see the harvest field around you. Don't allow the devil to magnify your own problems by closing your eyes to see God's need. You are sent to this world to do God's will on this earth. When you act as God's ambassador the whole heaven will back you and take care of all your personal and family problems. Don't be swallowed by your own grieves and needs. Seek God's kingdom first and experience God's miracle provision in all the areas of your life.

Pray for my wife, our families, and staff from Poondi and Head Quarters. Pray for all our programs and our leaders.

May the Lord use you mightily in this end time harvest and empower you to face all the challenges victoriously. The one who began a good work in you will complete it.

Yours brother in Christ

INTERCESSION FOR MINISTERS OF GOD

Prophet Ezekiah Francis

As you read this book, our Father God is smiling at you. He is greatly pleased with your desire to pray for His servants. Nothing in heaven or earth could thrill His heart more than this. Yes, the greatest service that you and I could do for humanity is to intercede for the servants of God. It is the duty of all believers to pray for all men. It is not merely mandatory but a privilege given to each one of us by the Lord!

The Bible teaches us to pray for different kinds of people. We have to pray for those who revile us; who persecute us; for kings; for officials; for God's servants; for saints; for all nations, and the list goes on. Yet in this list, our prayers are most needed for God's servants in the 21st century. This was the pattern set for us by our Lord Jesus Christ.

When Jesus saw the multitudes that followed Him, He was moved with compassion. His tear-filled eyes turned towards His disciples as He said, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest" (Mt. 9:37,38).

The Lord Jesus implied that praying for His servants is as important as praying for nations. The harvest is in the hands of the servants of God, and their failures or defeat mean sure defeat for the kingdom of God. This truth overwhelms me. Those who realize this fact will make it their mission in life to intercede for God's servants.

When we look into the Word of God we find that our Lord and Savior constantly upheld His servants in prayer. The Bible says, "Now it came to pass in those days that He went out to the mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God" (Lk. 6:12). I wonder what Jesus would have prayed for all through that night.

He would have prayed for each individual's ministry; that they would stand firm in the face of temptation and not waver in their faith but be steadfast till the end. He must have also prayed for them not to be depressed when persecution and tribulation came their way. He would have prayed that they should be used with signs and wonders. Thus, he would have interceded through the night for their different needs.

Often the Holy Spirit reveals the needs of the servants of God to those who sincerely pray for them. The Lord has graciously given me a few brothers and sisters who faithfully pray for me. Whenever anxieties and worries engulf me, the Lord miraculously lifts me out of them. Sometime later, I would receive a letter from these dear ones saying, "Brother, what happened to you on such and such a day at such and such a time?! I was greatly troubled about you and cried for hours at the feet of the Lord for you. Please write to me immediately.”

Whenever I receive such letters, my heart exults in the Lord. I marvel at God’s concern for me and shed tears of gratitude to my Maker. Remember, dear intercessor, the Lord is not a man to forget those who pray for His children. He is unchanging! Those who intercede for the servants of God will surely reap eternal blessings.

Christ continually interceded for his disciples. I firmly believe that He prayed more for the servants of God than for the multitudes. Praying for the servants of God is more important than praying for nations.

The devil trembles at the sight (and sound) of an intercessor. It seems to me that he needs the consent of the intercessor to touch a particular servant of God. That is why he asked the Lord Jesus if he could sift the apostles. Yet the Lord immediately prayed that Peter’s faith would not fail (Lk.22:31-32).

I shudder to think of what would have happened to Peter and the other apostles if Jesus had not prayed for them. The history of the apostles would have come to an end. Peter would have vanished into thin air. Yes, the devil and his army have never attacked God’s servants in the history of Christendom as ferociously as he is doing in this present day and age. Satan is sifting many of God’s servants as one would sift wheat. And many dear men of God cannot verbalize their desperate situations to anyone.

Yet your prayers can help to preserve and strengthen the wavering faith of a servant of God. Your prayers can guard their holiness. Will you pray like Jesus for the servants of God? Will you give utmost importance to the ministry of intercession above every other service?

Sad to say, many servants of God have backslidden because there was no one to pray for them. Many great warriors in God’s army have lost their lives for want of people to intercede for them! Many captains have strayed away from a life of holiness for want of people to plead their cause!

Do you think the Lord is unconcerned about this? Intercessors, wake up! Rise out of your complacency! Danger lurks at every turn for the servants of God. Spirits of darkness are threatening to destroy them. The servants of God need YOU! They need your prayers desperately! They do not need erratic prayer support but consistent prayer support. They need warfare prayers, tearful prayers, sincere prayers, selfless prayers, secret prayers, the pouring out of the soul in prayer, and prayers that the Lord sees. Will you take up this challenge today and consecrate yourself to praying for the servants of God?

In the Gospel of John, in the 17th chapter, we read about the “priestly prayer of Christ.” In this prayer, we can clearly see the heart cry of our Lord Jesus. We find that nearly three-fourths of that prayer was offered on behalf of the apostles. How imperative it is for us to pray for the servants of God!

I believe this prayer laid the foundation for the extraordinary life and ministry of the apostles. Let us meditate on this prayer for a while. “I have manifested Your Name to the men whom You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours, You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word” (Jn.17:6).

The servants of God belong to God. He separated them from the world. God esteems them as His precious treasures and priceless crowns. When Jesus walked on the face of the earth, our Father God gave them to Him.

Today, the Almighty God has given His servants as a gift to the Church, which is the Body of Christ. May the same sense of gratitude that Jesus had, fill your hearts now. God loves you so much that He has entrusted His precious servants to your care and protection. It is your responsibility to guard them from the wiles of the enemy. You can safe-guard them best in your prayer rooms.

I believe that this revelation prompted our Lord to pray a great deal for His disciples. In all sincerity Jesus said, “I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours” (Jn. 17:9). This is the challenge for us today.

There are many people who pray for the world that is perishing, but very few intercede with concern and burden for the servants of God.

We can follow this pattern of prayer when we pray for the servants of God. He prayed for unity to be established among them, their deliverance from evil and the evil one, and for their sustained, pure and holy lives.

Meditate upon these verses and use them when you pray for the servants of God. The Lord Jesus said, “Holy Father, keep through your name those whom You have given Me, that they may be one as We are” (Jn.17:11).

As a result of His prayer for unity, we read in the Acts of the Apostles that they lived and ministered in perfect unity. Even today, the Holy Spirit is calling you to pray with a burden for unity to prevail among the servants of God in the Body of Christ. The reason for disunity among the ministries of God today is obvious. Right now, the world needs prayer warriors to intercede for the unity of the servants of God. Through this, the world will know that Jesus Christ is Lord!

Jesus prayed, “While I was with them in the world, I kept them in Your name. Those whom You gave Me I have kept; and none of them is lost except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled” (Jn.17:12).

“I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from the evil one” (Jn.17:15).

When Christ was in the world, He sustained His disciples by praying in the Name of the Father. The Bible says that only the son of perdition was lost and none else. Now the time had come for Him to leave them. Therefore He prayed that the Father would guard them from evil.

The darts of the evil one must have attacked the apostles often. Yet the intercessory prayers of Jesus Christ had built a hedge around them and thus preserved them. Even after Jesus ascended into Heaven, His Father who had heard His prayers guarded them from all evil.

Today, Christ is calling you to safeguard His ministers from the fiery attack of the evil one. They are under heavy attack. Your prayers are their fortress, refuge and strength. “Sanctify them by Your truth. Your Word is truth” (Jn.17:17).

The early apostles were confronted by temptations too. The very anointing on them must have attracted thousands to them. Yet the prayer of the Lord Jesus kept them safe. They “presented their bodies as living sacrifices before God” (Ro.12:1) and lived holy, virtuous lives. They were not tainted by sin. Yet today, we hear that many powerful servants of God have fallen prey to immorality and many have become slaves to covetousness. We often hear such shocking news. There has never been such a lack of holiness in the lives of the servants of God. Secret sins abound. Spirits of lust and uncleanness have arrayed themselves against God’s servants to defile them. The devil has used the weapon of lust to destroy and defeat some great men of God. Those who were destined to shake the world have disappeared into nothingness from the world’s stage. Some have lost their lives while others have back-slidden. Still others live out their lives throwing empty challenges with their hollow talk like shamefully shaven Samson. The reason for all this chaos and confusion is obvious. It is the lack of people who promise to pray for the holiness of the ministers till they die. Dear reader, the eyes of God are upon you now. He is desperately searching for people to sincerely intercede for the holiness of His servants.

Will you submit yourselves to Him and obey His call? Will you form prayer groups and pray for the servants of God? When the hands of the servants of God become feeble, the lives of the flock are at stake. When their hands are up, the congregation will be victorious on the battle field. (Ex.17:12-13).

Those who realize this fact will consider it their ministry to uphold the hands of the servants of God.

This ministry is not attractive and the world will not see it to applaud it. These intercessors will not be recognized by the world. Yet the beauty of this ministry is that the hosts of heaven are watching. The Almighty God will smile on them, and they will receive not only earthly but heavenly rewards as well. On the final day, when these dear intercessors march the victory lap before they receive the crown, they will be greatly honored and glorified in the presence of all. Furthermore, even here on earth God will honor them. Families who intercede for servants of God are blessed people. They will see prosperity in their dwellings. Ministers of God will go forth to plunder the enemies’ strongholds, and these families will be a refuge for God’s servants.

The urgent need of the day is dedicated people who consider it their “full-time ministry” to intercede for the servants of God. Every “full-time” minister needs such “full-time” prayer warriors. Praying Hyde made it his mission in life to pray for God’s ministers. We need many more Hydes today. The great revivalist Charles Finney had intercessor John Knox constantly backing him up in prayer. He spent his whole life tirelessly praying for Finney's ministry. Even today, we have great intercessors who are specially called and equipped for this great ministry of intercession. Maybe you are one of them. Maybe the world does not even recognize your ministry. Dear child of God, maybe you are not called to be a public figure and you lack the charisma that attracts the masses. Maybe you are not highly qualified and your talents do not shine forth for the world to applaud. You may not have had the opportunities to prove yourself on stage. All this does not mean that you are useless in the hands of God. You need not go to your grave singing,

"Not one soul with which to greet Him Must I empty handed go?"

Dear reader, you can participate in world evangelism by praying for the evangelists. Your knees can withhold an evangelist from falling into sin and your prayers can protect him from sickness and disease. You may not be a prophet to stir the people of God by your fiery prophetic preaching. You may not be able to train and equip the saints in the supernatural ministry. Yet you can surely pray for prophets who do so that God would guard them from the sword of the evil one, and thereby participate in this prophetic ministry. Today, the spirit of Jezebel is roaring against the prophets of God to swallow them. As an intercessor, you can rush to their rescue.

Maybe God has not called you to be a pastor or a shepherd. Yet you can dedicate yourself to praying for them. The devil has sworn that he would kill the shepherd and scatter the sheep. Yet you can thwart his plans when you kneel in prayer.

You may not be an apostle who ventures into unknown territory to establish and plant new churches. Yet by interceding for them, you can travel with them. You can effectively shatter all that shatters them through your prayers. You can be an invisible partner in all their exploits.

On the Day of rewards, the Lord will surely remember you when He rewards His servants. In fact, you may receive a greater portion than the servants of God if you are sincere and faithful in your calling to intercede for them. God is no man's debtor. He will certainly reward you a hundred-fold.

In my personal life, my heart is filled with gratitude when I look at those who intercede for me. If I have withstood the test of time, it is only because of the intercessions of these faithful ones. My heart is overwhelmed with joy when I remember those who prayed for me from my youth.

With God as my witness, I can truly say that these dear prayer warriors are my greatest possession and treasure on this earth. I consider them as the backbone of my ministry. If I, a mere human being, could esteem them so high, how much more would my Master who called me to this ministry! In my spirit, I have always felt the overwhelming love of the Lord toward those who intercede for His ministers. The blessings that He in turn will bestow on them will be limitless.

When the hands of Moses were lowered, Aaron and Hur held them up, and as a result, they were blessed. They felt a sense of fulfillment when they strengthened the hands of their God-given leader who risked his life to deliver them from the Egyptians. They were happy to know that they also had a part to play in the victory of Joshua over the Amale-kites. The Almighty God did not forget to record in His Holy Scriptures what they did for Moses, and thereby He honored them.

The family of Aaron was blessed above all. They became the priestly clan which is a blessed vocation. Hur also became an important leader (Ex.24:14). The Lord God will exalt you who uphold the servants of God.

Do you remember when Peter was in prison once? He was to be executed the next day. The church was praying for him incessantly. In the house of Mary, the mother of John Mark, many people had gathered and were praying for him. Their prayers released Peter miraculously. God blessed her house and honored John Mark to become a co-worker with great apostles. He later became the author of the Gospel according to Mark. What a far-fetched reward!

God cannot and will not forget you when you intercede for His ministers. As a family, will you dedicate yourselves to this great task of interceding for His servants? Will you join hands with other privileged intercessors? If this message had stirred up your spirit, will you please join me in this prayer?

Dear Heavenly Father,

Thank you for Your message that has stirred my heart. I know you are a God who is moved with compassion for Your servants.

I surrender myself to You to stand in the gap for Your ministers by uniting my heart with You.

I consecrate my entire life to intercede and uphold Your precious servants whom You have entrusted in my hands.

Lead me by Your Spirit. Take me into the depths of intercessory prayer.

I know, dear Lord, that You will reward me and my family, both here and in eternity.

*Thank you, Father, for listening to my prayer.
In Jesus' matchless Name I pray. Amen*

I am convinced that the main reason why people get defeated in spiritual warfare is only one: They don't recognize what happens around them or what they go through as spiritual warfare! It happened to me, and I myself almost became a casualty of satan's spiritual warfare aimed at me! It happened right after my salvation, right at the beginning of my faith life.

I had been born again one night at home after deeply wounding with my typical stabbing words a person I actually loved, but that angered me. Since I had started reading the Bible, God's Holy Spirit could convict me and show me the path of destruction I was on due to the hurts from my upbringing.

I had always desired to bless people, but all too often, I hurt them because of my own unhealed wounds.

Never forget: Hurt people hurt people! Satan will make sure he can hurt you even in the womb or from the smallest childhood onwards. Then, he will build his stronghold in your mind, and he will put his demons there to jealously protect that hurt, which is a precious asset for them. Any unhealed hurt assures that satan can trigger you and use you whenever he desires. I myself have been a victim of childhood hurts and therefore a ready tool in satan's hands.

My situation and traumas were not very severe, and yet, satan could trigger me through these hurts, make me angry and use me against others! It needed salvation in Christ and a steady spiritual growth including deep inner healing in order to no longer be a 'useful puppet' in satan's hands:

12 Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts.

13 And do not present your members as instruments of un-righteousness to sin, but present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God (Ro.6:12-13)

All too often, believers don't recognize their own reactions or the reactions of others, both believers and unbelievers, as influenced by satan and therefore a kind of spiritual warfare. Praise God, I myself was tired of hurting people and therefore threw myself fully into the arms of Jesus! I was gloriously saved, and satan lost his attempt at spiritual warfare against me!

He didn't give up so easily, though. Having made Jesus the Lord of my life, I now read my Bible daily, but I didn't have any church I could go to. Being in the last few months before my final exams in my Biology studies, 'I thought' - or at least, I thought that 'I thought' - that now I didn't have time to find a church. I had to concentrate on my studies, isn't it? After the final exams, I had planned to visit a family in Miami, any biologist's paradise, for a few months. So 'I thought' that once there, I would search for a good church. Everybody knows that there are many powerful churches in America, isn't it?

Well, I finished my exams and reached Miami. As I had planned, I visited a famous megachurch. Can you imagine that right there, sitting in that church, again 'I thought'!?! This time, 'I thought', "Wow, this is very different than church in Germany! Oh, this can actually be very dangerous... everybody knows that there are many cults in America, isn't it? I better search for a church when I am back in Germany, just to be on the safer side..."

Can you imagine that I stopped looking for a church? I had been looking forward to deepening my spiritual life in Miami, but I stayed there the entire six months without looking for spiritual fellowship anymore! The devil with his lies had succeeded in stealing from me the wonderful opportunity to grow spiritually. He practically stole six months of my life! How true are the words of Jesus to the greedy hypocrites, the Pharisees, to whom he describes the devil:

44 You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it (Jn.8:44)

- ☞ The centre has formed a committee under Justice Prakash Prabhakar Naoglekar, a retired supreme court judge to study and address what it calls unnatural demographic changes. The committee is mandated with the task to assess population shifts across religious, social and regional demographic structures.
- ☞ In West Bengal, the opposition Trinamool Congress has undergone a vertical split. Its twenty Members of Parliament, who make up two thirds of the TMC parliamentary party formed a separate block and joined a little known political party called the Nationalist Congress Party of India. The rebel MPs have expressly made known their intention to align with the BJP led NDA in Parliament where several bills including the Delimitation Bill is expected to come up for discussion and voting during the impending monsoon session.
- ☞ The cyclical weather phenomenon called El Niño is currently underway, as said by meteorologists. They warn that it could escalate into a super event, leading to drought in several parts of the world. Weather experts point out to the deficient South West Monsoon as an impact of the El Niño saying there would be stress on water resources and agricultural yields besides causing escalation in temperatures.
- ☞ In the Grand Slam French Open tennis, Alexander Zverev of Germany defeated Flávio Cobolli of Italy in the final. It was his first major title. In the Women's Singles, Mirra Andrejeva won the title after overpowering Magda Chwalinska in straight sets. For Andrejeva also this is the first major title and she became the youngest woman to win the tournament since Monica Seles in 1982. Meanwhile the FIFA World Cup football matches are currently underway in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

When I finally reached Germany, I had become so spiritually cold that I almost gave up my salvation! That also was with a very good motive and intention! I actually even prayed with a heavy heart, "Lord Jesus, I am so sorry! I really wanted to be a good Christian, but I am just not able to live as You require. I am not able to love my enemies. I am not able to always obey Your Word... I don't want to bring shame to Your name, so please, just forget me. I won't call myself a Christian anymore."

Can you imagine? I almost gave up my salvation! Satan almost reached his goal to pull me back into his kingdom of darkness! Yet praise God, He used my mother to gift me a book full of testimonies about the 'infilling' or 'baptism of the Holy Spirit'. Through this book and through a weekend retreat over New Year, the Lord could speak to me and save my spiritual life!

I could now clearly see the subtle lies and deceptions satan had used to keep me from church, fellowship and Bible teaching. He managed to keep me alone so that I could lose my spiritual intensity although I faithfully read my Bible every day. O yes, satan and his minions are master deceivers, and satan is himself the father of lies (Rev.18:23, 19:20; 20:10)!

If you don't scrutinize and discern the origin of thoughts you think that 'you think', you may very well become the next victim in the raging spiritual warfare for the eternal soul of humanity!

In Christ, the food for your spirit man is God's Word. Only meditating on it constantly will renew your mind and produce faith to live in Christ. As you walk in the truth of God's Word, you manifest more and more of Christ in you. This is the secret of living in victory, health, holiness, power and authority

- Prophet Ezekiah Francis

God's Medicine Healing Scriptures & Confessions

- ✧ Thank You, Lord, I rejoice in You always. You are my Strength and my Shield. My heart trusted in You, and I am helped. Therefore, my heart greatly rejoices, and with my song I praise You. I am anxious for nothing, and Your peace, which surpasses all understanding, guards my heart and mind because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, Lord, I am sanctified, called to be a saint. All things were created through You and for You. You are before all things, and in You all things consist. You are the Head of the Body, the Church, who is the Beginning, the Firstborn from the dead, that in all things You may have the pre-eminence. I don't forsake the assembling together, as is the manner of some. I exhort and receive exhortation, and so much the more as I see the Day approaching because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, Lord, by Your grace I am saved through faith, and that not of myself; it is Your gift, not of my works, lest I should boast. For I am Your workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which You prepared beforehand that I should walk in them. I have entered Your rest and ceased from my works because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, Lord, for so great a salvation, which was confirmed to us by signs and wonders, with various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit. I believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and I will be saved, me and me household because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, Lord, I know that my old man was crucified with You, that the body of sin might be done away with, that I should no longer be slave of sin. I have died and have been freed from sin. I reckon myself to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to You because I am in Christ.

BERACHAH TRAINING CENTER

Center Of Healing For All Nations- Accommodation Facility

We at Berachah Prophetic Ministries are forever indebted to God for His faithfulness in fulfilling the vision which He entrusted to us. The prophetic voice of God has spread all across the nations transforming lives over the past few decades.

NEED OF ACCOMMODATION FACILITY

Indeed, through the past decades God has been so faithful to lead thousands of miracle workers to be trained, equipped and recharged to go forth to the mission field. God is drawing his love labourers in great masses to meet the need of the hungry multitudes in the world. However, one of the overwhelming challenges is to provide accommodation to the thousands that gather in any given event. This has been a pressing need of the ministry over the years.

1. The maximum capacity of the current room and AC dorm accommodation units is around four hundred delegates for a given event.
2. The minimal gathering for seminars and conferences is around 2,500 delegates. To accommodate this mass gathering we are currently converting the mini auditorium and dining hall as temporary accommodation units to facilitate the need of the hour.
3. Availing the main auditorium for accommodation purpose constrains the people to rest at night and refresh during afternoon breaks.
4. Dust free and clean environment is highly essential to maintain the fully airconditioned auditorium. Free flow of air circulation promotes healthy stay of the gathering. This prevents the spread of any sickness or virus among the crowd.

Phase 1 - DORMITORY ACCOMMODATION

Phase 1 dormitory accommodation for the trainees with attached washrooms and toilets, cots and mattress, in an area of 36,000 sq. ft, accommodating 1000 delegates, was successfully completed in the month of Feb 2025 at our Poondi campsite with grace and wisdom of God. Total amount for this accommodation is 7.2 Crores, wherein we are still in need of 4 Crores to complete.

We appreciate your continuous support through prayers and selfless offerings for this project. If God inspires you, pray and support for the Phase 1 - Dormitory Accommodation building project.

Phase 2 - ROOMS ACCOMMODATION

Phase 2 was started from March 2026, and we proposed to build 160+ rooms with different types of rooms in an area of 60,000 Sq. ft. Total budget cost is 15 crores. Per sq. ft costing Rs. 2500/-.

The budgeted cost per room accommodation facility is Rs. 6 Lakhs. You can support this mega project individually or collectively as a church, family, prayer group or together with your friends. You can also give in installments or any amount you want to sow towards this mega accommodation project.
