From My Heart

Greetings in the mighty Name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

It is our great joy to share with you through this magazine what God is doing in our ministry. We had a very powerful 10-day STC (Short Term Intensive Course) in our campsite at Poondi. Ministry leaders, pastors and believers from different states of India attended. May God bless you richly for your prayers. God blessed us with a pleasant climate, comfortable stay, good food and enough water for the almost 1500 delegates. There was no discord, no grumbling, no complaining. God's Holy Spirit could flow mightily without any hindrance and transform lives for time and eternity.

God revealed His mysteries and enlightened the eyes of every participant by His profound truth about 'Christ in you, the hope of glory' (Gal.2:20; Col.1:27). People were delivered, healed emotionally and physically; challenged to perform miracles, signs and wonders; confirmed in their callings. They operated in the gifts, healed one another, prophesied to each other and went out full of the Spirit, truth and power. Continue to pray for them to keep growing into the full potential of their calling.

We are preparing for our Ministers Conference in Colombo, Sri Lanka, from 21st to 24th of September. Sri Lanka needs miracle workers with mighty signs and wonders. Only preaching is not enough. Preaching with the demonstration of the Holy Spirit is desperately needed to touch the unsaved. With this burden we have organized this seminar for people who are already leaders leading ministries or those who have the desire to serve God full-time. Encourage such people to register immediately and don't forget to pray for this life-transforming seminar.

The Holy Spirit is doing mighty works among the students in our 3-months School of the Holy Spirit. He is deeply working in them and opening up to them the supernatural realm. Pray for each and every one of them to be transformed into a different person.

November is a special month for ladies. We will conduct our School of the Holy Spirit for Ladies from November 1st to December 1st. Already many women are eagerly counting the days to attend this life-transforming school. Our hearts are

POWER WORKERS

Prophet Ezekiah Francis

Christ is earnestly looking for workers like Him who do miracles like Him with His compassion. What kind of laborers did He have in mind when He said, “The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few” (Mt.9:37)? In my young days I used to think that the few laborers were those who somehow win souls with the Gospel.

The real meaning, however, was revealed to me only later. Consider whom Jesus referred to as ‘few workers.’ If you meditate upon this with an open mind, you cannot miss His heart-cry:

35 Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then He said to His disciples, “The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few.

38 Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.”

1 And when He had called His twelve disciples to Him, He gave them power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease (Mt. 9:35-38; 10:1)

If you read these verses carefully in their context, you will observe a striking truth. According to the ‘rules of interpretation,’ we must see the entire context in which Jesus mentioned the laborers we need to pray for.

Jesus went about all the cities and villages, preaching the Gospel and healing the sick. Naturally, a large crowd followed Him wherever He went, as the needs of the people were great. Jesus looked at the crowd and saw they were harassed and helpless, weary and scattered like sheep without a shepherd. There were many afflicted by sicknesses and demons; some were driven by utter poverty. Yet others were oppressed by sorrow.

Jesus saw that there was no shepherd to care for them, and His loving heart went out to them. Full of compassion, He said to His disciples, “The harvest is truly plentiful, but the laborers are few.” So He asked them to pray that the Lord of the harvest might send out more laborers.

Then He spent several nights in God’s Presence. One morning, He called the twelve to Him and gave them the authority and power to cast out evil spirits and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease.

Whom did Jesus refer to as the ‘few laborers?’ Were there no teachers of the law in His days, nor priests nor Pharisees? There were plenty of religious workers in His time.

Yet His heart was looking for His kind of laborers who would be moved with compassion and heal the sick and deliver the captives with His power. He saw that such workers of miracles were a scarcity. That is why the day He called His disciples He gave them enough power and authority to multiply His good works to benefit all the people.

Yes beloved, it would be more appropriate to say that there are not enough laborers who can harvest with divine power, than to say that there are no laborers at all. We should not lose sight of this powerful truth or be satisfied with a ministry of mere preaching. Who could be a more powerful preacher than Jesus? He even said:

48 Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will by no means believe (Jn.4:48)

How can we presume that people will believe in our message unless they see accompanying signs and wonders?! Are we more skilled preachers than Jesus? Think about it...

The Command

Christ gave His power and authority to all the chosen twelve. He also chose seventy more disciples and sent them out with the power to heal the sick. How can we ignore this?

Listen to the command of Jesus as He deputed the twelve:

7 And as you go, preach, saying, 'The Kingdom of heaven is at hand.'

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give (Mt.10:7-8)

If the word, 'Go' is a command, then 'heal the sick' is also a command. I don't understand people who brag about obeying the Great Commission and God's command but ignore this important aspect:

19 Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age. Amen (Mt.28:19-20)

'All things I have commanded you' includes healing the sick and driving out demons. Those who emphasize one truth conveniently close their eyes to the other truth! It is because of this one-sided presentation that even after two thousand years, the nations have not been brought to believe in the Gospel. Will you accept this with all humility?

I thank God for every God-raised ministry. Without these Apollos, there would not be even one Christian in our countries. Yet when we consider the great need of the nations, these few believers are negligible. If we proceed at this rate, even after another two thousand years we won't make much progress. It would be like trying to break down the Himalayas with a chisel. We may succeed in chipping away some stones here and there to soothe our conscience, but the Himalayas would still remain the same unchanging Himalayas.

That is precisely why the Lord asked His disciples not to leave Jerusalem until they were endued with power from on high (Ac.1:4).

Mountains can only be toppled by dynamis power. Today, the Lord is seeking such ‘dynamis-ministers’.

No matter what is your calling, please seek the power manifestation along with your calling. If you are called to be an apostle, your calling must be attested with signs and wonders. See what the great apostle Paul says to you:

12 Truly the signs of an apostle were accomplished among you with all perseverance, in signs and wonders and mighty deeds (2. Co.12:12)

What is the proof that somebody is an apostle? Undoubtedly, it is the signs and wonders he performs. Jesus, the great Chief Apostle, lamented that such apostle-laborers are few.

Maybe you are a prophet. Please see what kind of prophets Jesus is seeking today. What kind of people is God seeking? Even in Isaiah’s time, there were many priests and prophets, but God was seeking His prophets of revelation who could see and transmit God’s heart desire to the people and to the entire nations. He searched for those who would listen to His voice and speak His oracles declaring, “Thus says the Lord...” Such prophets of forth-telling and fore-telling are desperately needed today.

The need of the hour is prophets filled with supernatural revelations. “Such prophets are few,” says Jesus, the greatest of all the prophets. The need is for miracle-working prophets like Elijah, Elisha and Samuel. We need prophets who would go into the spirit world like Ezekiel and Isaiah. We need prophets like Agabus who would predict future famine. We need prophets who are mighty in Word and deed like Jesus (Lk.20:19).

Are you ready to surrender yourself, saying, “Here am I, Lord, send me” (Isa.6:8)?

It is quite obvious that evangelistic ministries must exhibit miracles, healings and deliverances. If you are called to be an evangelist, seek power demonstrations in your ministry at any cost. You are called not only to declare the Gospel but also to demonstrate the Gospel. The Spirit of the Lord God is upon you not only to preach the Gospel to the poor, but also to heal the brokenhearted, to set the captives free from diseases, sicknesses and demonic oppressions as well as to open the blind eyes.

Look at Philip, the only evangelist mentioned in the Bible. He preached Christ and demonstrated His power by performing many miracles. Evil unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice, came out of many who were possessed; many who were paralyzed and lame were healed; great multitudes were won to the Kingdom, and there was great joy in that city. This is the ministry of an evangelist. The Lord is looking for such evangelists even today (Ac.8). ‘They are very few’ says the Greatest of all the evangelists.

Are you a pastor? Please don’t presume that the miracle ministry is only for evangelists, and don’t relegate it to others. Listen to the Lord rebuking the shepherds:

4 The weak you have not strengthened, nor have you healed those who were sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back what was driven away, nor sought what was lost; but with force and cruelty you have ruled them (Eze.34:4)

The sheep grow weak because there are no shepherds to heal the sick or bind up the injured. Because of the scarcity of the healing shepherds, people are like sheep scattered, weary, harassed and distressed (Mt.9:36). Healing shepherds are the kind of shepherds Jesus mentioned as ‘few laborers.’

Another great tragedy I have seen in the Body of Christ is that people called as teachers are mostly opposing the ministry of miracles. They limit their ministry, excusing themselves by saying, “I am called as a teacher. My gifting is only to teach the Word.” Are you a teacher? Good! When you teach in the synagogues expect the demons in the synagogues to scream and to run. This is what happened when your role model, the Great Teacher Jesus, taught in the synagogues (Mk.1:23-27)!

Let your words and teachings be with authority from heaven (Lk.4:32,36). When your great example Jesus was teaching, people were amazed because, unlike the teachers of the law, Jesus taught with authority. In the teachings of the scribes, there was much Word, whereas in the teachings of Jesus, there was much Word as well as much power and authority.

Seek this anointing in your teachings. Only then the religious leaders will come to you and confess: “We know that you are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do unless God is with him” (Jn.3:2). See and expect this important truth: A teacher from God has miracles from God.

Paul was a wonderful teacher. He preached long hours even in the late nights. One young man fell down from the third story and was picked up dead while Paul was teaching. Thank God, Paul had enough power and faith to embrace him and raise him up, only to continue his teaching for some more hours (Ac.20:8-12)! It is this kind of teachers our Great Teacher referred to as ‘few laborers’. Oh God! Raise up teachers of power!

As we have seen earlier, there is no ministry in the Bible without supernatural power and revelation. This same anointing is upon you! All the prophets and apostles of the Bible knew how to use their anointing, and they did exploits for God. Yet alas! Some limited their ministry; they failed to use their gifts and fell into frustration and depression.

Christ knows no favoritism. He is rich and generous towards anyone who will seek Him. All His heavenly and earthly blessings without limit are ours for the asking. Your Father God has already blessed you with all His spiritual blessings in Christ (Eph.1:3). He is looking for those who will use and exercise the power given to them.

9 For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him... (2.Chr.16:9a)

Will His eyes find you??? I often meditate upon the ministry of our Lord Jesus. The way He chose His missionaries makes my heart yearn for Him. His method of selection is just wonderful. He did not give a missionary challenge to the thousands and then an altar call for missionaries. He didn’t call them for an interview to assess their talents and skills before recruiting them for the mission field.

TESTIMONIES

The transformed lives

- ✳ Praise the Lord! Coming from a traditional Pentecostal background, I was shattered by grief and severe depression after losing my son. Desperate for healing, my husband and daughter encouraged me to attend a month-long School of the Holy Spirit for Ladies, a rare opportunity, as my church seldom allowed outside meetings. Initially, I struggled with outward differences, like unformed traditions regarding head coverings and jewellery. But within five days, God transformed my heart. I realized that religion focuses on appearance, but Christ desires a deep connection rooted in His Word, a truth rarely preached today. Through these powerful messages, God completely renewed my mind. He healed my lingering sorrow, replacing my unmet expectations with a desire to love and support my husband faithfully. I came broken, but I leave transformed. I will never be the same again. I am grateful to God who helped to attend this School of the Holy Spirit for Ladies. Heartfelt thanks to the Berachah Team. – L
- ✳ Hallelujah! In this School of the Holy Spirit for Ladies, God filled my heart with overflowing joy, lifting the deep pain I carried for years. Though I work as a psychologist, human wisdom couldn't heal me the way God's truth did. Through the prophetic messages at the school, the Lord transformed my perspective on marriage. I often felt upset, expecting my husband, a pastor, to express love on my terms. Today, God revealed the true purpose of marriage to me. I made a firm decision to fully support my husband, loving him selflessly. I am set free from frustration and renewed with bubbling joy to be a true helpmate to him, his ministry, and the Kingdom of God. – M

- ✳ Praise the Lord! Diagnosed with ovarian cancer and given six months to live, fear drove me from the hospital. Wanting to serve God with my remaining time, I chose to spend my days singing, dancing, and worshipping Jesus in my room. Unexpectedly, the Holy Spirit filled me with the unspeakable and overflowing joy. A year later, doctors were amazed that I was completely healed! Coming to Berachah, the School of the Holy Spirit for Ladies, I experienced that same glorious joy again, confirming the Holy Spirit's miraculous work in my life. God gave me fresh visions for ministry, deeply encouraging our team. The Holy Spirit broke my fear, healed my body, and filled me with fullness of joy! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!! - T

During a session of anointing, the Holy Spirit delivered me and filled with unspeakable joy! God gave me a vision of women trapped in hellish bondage being set free through Sis. Sudha's preaching. I then saw Jesus, clothing women with His Royal Armor. Experiencing His tender touch, I was completely healed and empowered to fulfill my divine calling. - M

God spoke His Word into my heart, and His overwhelming Presence swept over me. Filled with a deep, overflowing joy, holy goosebumps covered me as God's Power vibrated through my soul, leaving me totally renewed! Thank God for this wonderful ministry. - N

BOOST YOUR BRAIN

Benita Francis

Dear family of God, as we have been studying, you have a lot to say in the development of your brain and your IQ! You can boost your brain and improve your intelligence starting now itself and completely without expensive treatments!

No matter what is your physical age, you can still go from strength to strength and from glory to glory even in your memory and intelligence (Ps.84:7; 2. Co.3:18; Dt.34:7)! Let us study what you can do to fight mental decline.

DRINK yourself clever!

Your brain performance will shoot up if you drink enough pure, healthy water! As we have already seen, water is the number one ingredient for a healthy, intelligent brain since your brain consists in over 80% water. Only with enough fluid, quick brain response and interaction, neurotransmitter production and waste disposal can be guaranteed. Here again, sugary teas and coffee, readymade fruit drinks or soft drinks don't count since added sugar or other chemical substances will only disturb your brain's chemical balance and impair its function.

BREATHE yourself clever!

The best way to do that is exercising in fresh air! Your brain weighs roughly 2% of your body weight, but your brain consumes approximately 20% of the oxygen you breathe! If you don't provide it with enough oxygen to function, your brain incurs damage; but praise be to our loving Creator, even those damages can be reversed if you make sure you administer enough oxygen to your brain now!

Cleanse your air conditioner at least every 2 weeks to keep a good airflow with a healthy filter. Preferably, go to places where you can breathe fresh, unpolluted air. Watch your breathing techniques repeatedly during your day. Make sure you breathe deeply from your belly, not just shallow lung breathing. You will eliminate waste products and make your brain run faster on a fresh oxygen supply!

EXERCISE yourself clever!

To be healthy, your brain needs input to activate it. All sensory input provides activation to the brain, such as sound, sight, taste, touch, smell, etc.! 80% or more of this brain activation comes from movements! Every time you move your brain "lights up". If you don't move, or move very little, your brain slows down and becomes weaker. Therefore, physical movement like exercise or dance is imperial to keep your brain happy and healthy.

BRAIN-EXERCISE yourself clever!

There are many small things you can do to improve your brain capacity. Memorizing names, places, phone numbers or shopping lists etc. is one way to grow your brain. Link things you don't want to forget to little incidents. Invent funny stories about why you put your keys in exactly this place.

Imagine, for example, you need to protect them from the ravenous cat that would just love to devour them. Picture the cat's disappointment when it sees your keys out of reach for its hungry stomach. Or imagine your keys jumping and shouting when you call them. Such kinds of funny imaginations will trigger your brain and create a strong memory, and you will easily remember where your keys are waiting for you!

An added benefit is that such stories add creativity and wits to your life, plus bring a smile on your face or even a laughter to your belly - another health improver and life-span prolonger! There are no limits to the ways you can kill the "routine rat-race" in which so many people, sadly even believers, are caught up, just functioning like robots. Use your imagination to spice up your daily routines and improve your brain health and performance!

EAT yourself clever!

Remember that your body can use only what YOU put inside through your mouth, nose and skin as building materials for a healthy you! It is therefore only logical that what you eat determines the performance of every part of your system, including your brain. Some foods help the brain work better, some foods drag down brain performance. Be smart and eat smart foods! The less you cook, fry or boil these "brain builders", the more brain-boosting nutrients you will receive from your food.

Powerful brain foods

Studies show that food affects the brain and modifies the mental effects of aging. Inflammation and oxidative stress also contribute to decline in brain function. Recently, leading brain researchers have agreed on a “top list” of brain-enhancing foods that help your brain cells communicate effectively even as you age:

Eggs: Eggs are one of the best sources of choline, an essential nutrient for the health of cell membranes throughout the body, including brain cell membranes. In the brain, choline is used to make acetylcholine, a neurotransmitter that is critical for memory and thought processes. Adequate acetylcholine levels are thought to be protective against some kinds of dementia including Alzheimer’s disease.

The average person needs 425-550 milligrams of choline daily and two egg yolks provide about half that amount (250 mg.) The only food that provides more choline than eggs is beef liver. Other food sources include beef steak, cauliflower and wheat germ. In cauliflower and wheat germ, you don’t have the impairment of high cholesterol levels but the full benefit of healthy choline. Try to add some wheat germ to your daily food intake and enjoy a natural brain boost!

Blueberries: Researchers nicknamed them “brain berries” because eating blueberries daily slowed or reversed impairments in motor coordination and memory that come with aging. Blueberries are packed with antioxidants that fight free radical damage which is linked to Alzheimer’s disease. In addition, blueberry consumption may help lessen brain damage from strokes. Experts recommend eating 1/2 to 1 cup of fresh or frozen blueberries per day.

Wild salmon: Fatty fish-like salmon are a great source of the omega-3 fatty acids DHA and EPA, both of which are essential for brain development and function. DHA helps protect against dementia, Alzheimer’s disease and Parkinson’s disease as well as depression. Fish oil fights heart disease and reduces stroke risk through improving blood circulation and vascular function. Other benefits may include improving Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder and dyslexia.

Walnuts and other nuts: Boasting the highest amount of omega-3 fats of all the nuts, walnuts contain alpha-linolenic acid or ALA, a different omega-3 than is found in fish. Walnuts are rich in the trace mineral manganese, which is essential for peak brain function. Nuts also contain vitamin E, a potent antioxidant. Be careful, though: nuts are very high in calories and can make you overweight, which is another danger for your brain health.

Colorful veggies: Antioxidants in vegetables help prevent the buildup of plaque in the arteries which translates to better blood flow to the brain and lower stroke risk. Just a few servings of veggies might make a big difference. One study showed that older people who eat at least two cups of vegetables a day slowed their mental decline by 40% more than folks who eat less than one serving a day. Enjoy a variety of colorful veggies - raw or cooked. Because manufacturers freeze them at their peak, frozen vegetables are usually as nutritious as fresh.

In Christ, the food for your spirit man is God's Word. Only meditating on it constantly will renew your mind and produce faith to live in Christ. As you walk in the truth of God's Word, you manifest more and more of Christ in you. This is the secret of living in victory, health, holiness, power and authority

- Prophet Ezekiah Francis

God's Medicine Healing Scriptures & Confessions

- ✧ Thank You, Lord, You are my shepherd, I shall not want. Mercy and goodness shall follow me all the days of my life. As I seek you I shall never lack any good thing. You supply all my needs according to Your riches in glory because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, Lord, You have come to give me life and life more abundantly. All Yours is mine, Lord! You satisfy my mouth with all good things, and my youth is renewed like the eagle. In You I live and move and have my being because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, Lord, I am made in Your image, according to Your likeness. I have dominion over creation. I have received abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness, and I will reign in life through You. You have given me the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt me because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, Lord, I am made in Your image, according to Your likeness. You have given me exceedingly great and precious promises, and through these I am a partaker of the divine nature. I have put on the new man who is renewed in knowledge according to the image of Him who created him because I am in Christ.
- ✧ Thank You, Lord, I am Your workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which You prepared beforehand that I should walk in them. I am fearfully and wonderfully made. I am Your marvelous work. I am a good and perfect gift from above, from the Father of lights, because I am in Christ.
